

Unlock after-tax and operational alpha through a data-driven tax strategy

SS&C's Tax BrightLineSM is the comprehensive, technology-powered solution for tax compliance, reporting and analytics. It enables fund managers to manage their tax exposure year-round in real time, helping to maximize structural alpha through a data driven tax strategy.

Did you know?

Portfolio managers can miss their alpha due to unforeseen tax burdens?

Without considering tax implications, managers are at risk of paying more in taxes?

Taxes can vary and swing widely based on different investment products?

Manage tax exposure, and maximize returns, while meeting investor requirements and fiduciary duty.

Taxes right now are not being valued. They should be.

Today's market lacks technology-driven tax insights

Often, investment decisions are being made without considering tax implications

Effective tax strategies enable fund managers to better serve their clients

Deliver investor-level data and analytics to manage tax exposure

For more information request a demo today >

